

Pan y Amor News Letter

At the end of 2010

Frnter Books celebrates their third annual Christmas Bazaar:

On the 20th of November 2010, Frontera Books celebrated their third annual Christmas Bazaar naming Pan y Amor the beneficiary.

The bazaar, consisting of 30 exhibitors, selling a variety of articles including arts and crafts, was well attended. There was great food and fun to be had with a lively show during the afternoon from a group of youngsters singing Christmas music and a group of Pan y Amor dancers exhibiting their talents.

Pan y Amor wins first prize in a reading competition:

A group of first grade students from the Centro Escolar Pan y Amor- Mercado Oriental, who are also included in a program organized by Pro Niño (a social program benefiting very poor children run by MOVISTAR, one of the telephone companies in Nicaragua); won first place among 32 other schools in Managua for their quick reading and comprehension skills.

Pan y Amor's two young foot ball (soccer) teams reach the finals again in 2010:

The two junior league teams from Pan y Amor- Mercado Oriental, came in winners once again during 2010. The younger team came in third place and the older team came in second place for the third year running. These young sportsmen won, playing against several of the private schools in Managua and we are especially proud of the letters of recommendation received, congratulating them on their high standards of sportsmanship and discipline during the matches.

Representatives from the Association of wives of Diplomats stationed in Nicaragua, visit the market center:

Several ladies representing the Diplomatic missions in Nicaragua, visited the market center baring gifts of soccer balls, tee shirts, story books and chess games, all very much needed and appreciated.

Colegio Pan y Amor- Batahola's first High school graduation ceremony:

On the 29th of November, 2010, seventy seven high school graduates from the Batahola school, received their high school diplomas. They also received their certificates for having completed three years of technical career training which included 480 hours of apprenticeship with businesses in the private sector of Managua.
